Santiago, November 26, 1937.

No. 1.

Sir C. Bentinck to Sr. don J. Ramón Gutierrez.

Excellency,

Santiago, November 26, 1937.

I HAVE the honour to confirm that the following provisions constitute a temporary commercial agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Chilean Government pending the conclusion of a definite treaty of commerce and navigation :—

1. His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom will continue to extend to the commerce of Chile with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland the treatment of most favoured foreign countries as provided in the exchange of notes between the Chilean Government and His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, dated the 15th October, 1931.<sup>(1)</sup>
2. The Chilean Government agree that the most-favoured-nation treatment shall continue to be applied to the commerce between Chile and the United Kingdom as stipulated in the exchange of notes between the Chilean Government and His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, dated the 15th October, 1931.
3. The present agreement shall remain in force until the 30th June, 1938, unless previously replaced by the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation now under negotiation between the two Governments, and it may be denounced by either of the parties at one month's notice.
4. The present note and your Excellency's reply in similar terms shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between the two Governments in this matter.

I avail, &c.
