* Danish statement at time of signature:—

The Danish Government wishes to state that the reservation made by Denmark on the ratification of the Agreement is still valid, namely, that the Agreement on North Atlantic Ocean Weather Stations will cease to bind the Danish Government if the Agreement concluded at Montreal on 9th September, 1949, between the Danish Government and the Council of I.C.A.O. regarding certain Air Navigation Services in Greenland and the Faroe Islands becomes void. Furthermore, the Danish Government wishes to state, as a presupposition for its signature, that the negotiations regarding the contributions towards the new services at the Station Prins Christiansund will soon lead to a result satisfactory to Denmark.

Under Article 46 the Government of Ireland recognise the competence of the European Commission of Human Rights to receive petitions addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe from any person, non-governmental organisation or group of individuals claiming to be the victim of a violation by one of the High Contracting Parties of the Rights set forth in the said Convention.

(2) Under Article 25 the Government of Denmark recognise for a period of two years the competence of the Commission to receive petitions addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe from any person, non-governmental organisation or group of individuals claiming to be the victim of a violation by one of the High Contracting Parties of the Rights set forth in this Convention.

Under Article 46 the Government of Denmark recognise, for a period of two years, as compulsory ipso facto and without special agreement the jurisdiction of the Court in all matters concerning the interpretation and application of this Convention.

(*) When depositing the instrument of ratification the German Federal Republic made the following statement :—

- (i) The Convention shall apply also to Western Berlin.
- (ii) In conformity with Article 64 of the Convention, the German Federal Republic make the reservation that it will only apply the provisions appearing under Article 7, Clause 2, of the Convention so far as is allowed by Article 103, Clause 2, of the Basic Law of the German Federal Republic. This provides that " any Act is only punishable if it was so by law before the offence was committed ".
- (iii) Ratification by the German Federal Republic must not be interpreted as recognition of the present status of the Saar.

(*) In pursuance of Article 46 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms signed at Rome on 4th November, 1950, the Royal Netherlands Government recognises as compulsory ipso facto and without special agreement, for a period of five years from the date of deposit of its instrument of ratification of the said Convention, the jurisdiction of the European Court of Human Rights in all matters concerning the interpretation and application of the said Convention, such jurisdiction being accepted only in regard to other Contracting Parties assuming the same obligation, that is, subject to the condition of reciprocity.

(*) Under Article 64 the Government of Norway made the following reservation :—

" In view of the fact that Article 2 of the Norwegian Constitution of 17th May, 1814, contains a clause whereby Jesuits shall not be tolerated, a similar reservation is made with regard to the implementation of Article 9 of the Convention ".

(*) Under Article 25 the Swedish Government recognise the competence of the European Commission of Human Rights to receive petitions addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe from any natural person, non-governmental organisation, or group of individuals claiming to be the victim of a violation by one of the High Contracting Parties of the rights set forth in the Convention.

(¹) Declaration. . . . in view of certain provisions of the Education Acts in force in the United Kingdom, the principle affirmed in the second sentence of Article 2 is accepted by the United Kingdom only so far as it is compatible with the provision of efficient instruction and training, and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure.

(²) At the time of signature of this Protocol, the Greek Government, pursuant to Article 64 of the Convention, makes the following reservation relating to Article 2 of the Protocol: The application of the word "philosophical", which is the penultimate word of the second sentence of Article 2, will, in Greece, conform with the relevant provisions of internal legislation.

(⁵) Article 2 of the Protocol shall be deemed to be without prejudice to the provisions of Law No. 430 of 3rd March, 1924, on the establishment of a single educational system.

*Translation of Salvadorean declarations

- (1) El Salvador neither accepts nor ratifies engagements which other states may have contracted with respect to the transfer or final disposal of the territories enumerated in Article II of the Treaty of Peace with Japan, in all cases in which the will of the populations affected, freely expressed, has not been consulted and respected. This reserve applies to the transfer of the Kurile Islands, of a part of Sakhalin Island and to all other analogous cases, including in addition any engagement regarding the Island of Formosa, and
- (2) The provisions of Article XIV of the Treaty of Peace with Japan, which authorise the confiscation of the property of Japanese natural or juridical persons shall be of no effect in El Salvador, as being contrary to the Political Constitution of the country.

† United States declaration

As part of such advice and consent the Senate states that nothing the treaty contains is deemed to diminish or prejudice, in favour of the Soviet Union, the right, title, and interest of Japan, or the Allied Powers as defined in the said treaty, in and to South Sakhalin and its adjacent islands, the Kurile Islands, the Habomai Islands, the Island of Shikotan, or any other territory, rights, or interests possessed by Japan on 7th December, 1941, or to confer any right, title, or benefit therein or thereto on the Soviet Union; and also that nothing in the said treaty, or the advice and consent of the Senate to the ratification thereof, implies recognition on the part of the United States of the provisions in favour of the Soviet Union contained in the so-called "Yalta agreement" regarding Japan of 11th February, 1945.

(8) Translation of declaration
 "In signing this Convention the Government of Greece declares that for the purpose of its obligations thereunder the words 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' in Article 1, Section A, shall be understood as referring to events occurring in Europe or elsewhere before 1st January, 1951."

(9) Translation of declaration
 "In signing this Convention the Government of the Italian Republic declares that the provisions of Article 6, 7 (2), 8, 17, 18, 19, 22 (a), 23, 25, and 34 are regarded by them only as recommendations. In addition, it declares that for the purpose of its obligations thereunder the words 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' in Article 1, Section A (2), shall be understood as referring to events occurring in Europe before 1st January, 1951."

(10) Translation of reservation
 "In all cases where the Convention grants to refugees the most favourable treatment accorded to nationals of a foreign country, this provision shall not be interpreted as necessarily involving the régime accorded to nationals of countries with which the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg has concluded regional, customs, economic or political agreements."

(11) Translation of declaration
 "In signing this Convention the Netherlands Government declares that for the purpose of its obligations thereunder the words 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' in Article 1, Section A, shall be understood as referring to events occurring in Europe or elsewhere before 1st January, 1951."

This signature is subject to the reservation that in all cases where this Convention grants to refugees the most favourable treatment accorded to nationals of a foreign country this provision shall not be interpreted as necessarily involving the régime accorded to nationals of countries with which the Netherlands have concluded regional, customs, economic or political agreements."

(12) Translation of declaration
 "In signing this Convention, the Government of the Turkish Republic declares that for the purpose of its obligations thereunder the words 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' in Article 1, Section A, shall be understood as referring to events occurring in Europe before 1st January, 1951. It therefore does not intend to assume any obligation in regard to events occurring outside Europe."

In addition, the Turkish Government considers that the expression 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' refers to the beginning of such events. Consequently, since the pressure exercised on the Bulgarian Turkish minority, which began before 1st January, 1951, still continues, Bulgarian refugees of Turkish origin who were obliged to leave this country because of such pressure and who, not being able to enter Turkey, have taken refuge in the territory of another Contracting Party after 1st January, 1951, should also benefit by the terms of this Convention.

On ratification the Turkish Government will state precisely the reservations they will make under Article 42 of the Convention."

(13) Translation of reservation
 "The Government of the Federative People's Republic of Yugoslavia reserves the right on ratification to state precisely under Article 42 of the Convention such reservations as they think fit."

(¹) United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

(i) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland understand Articles 8 and 9 as not preventing them from taking in time of war or other grave and exceptional circumstances measures in the interests of national security in the case of a refugee on the ground of his nationality. The provisions of Article 8 shall not prevent the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from exercising any rights over property or interests which they may acquire or have acquired as an Allied or Associated Power under a Treaty of Peace or other agreement or arrangement for the restoration of peace which has been or may be completed as a result of the Second World War. Furthermore, the provisions of Article 8 shall not affect the treatment to be accorded to any property or interests which at the date of entry into force of this Convention for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland are under the control of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland by reason of a state of war which exists or existed between them and any other State.

(ii) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland accept paragraph 2 of Article 17 with the substitution of "four years" for "three years" in sub-paragraph (a) and with the omission of sub-paragraph (c).

(iii) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, in respect of such of the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 1 of Article 24 as fall within the scope of the National Health Service, can only undertake to apply the provisions of that paragraph so far as the law allows; and it can only undertake to apply the provisions of paragraph 2 of that Article so far as the law allows.

(iv) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland cannot undertake to give effect to the obligations contained in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 25 and can only undertake to apply the provisions of paragraph 3 so far as the law allows.

United Kingdom for the Channel Islands and Isle of Man

(i) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland understand Articles 8 and 9 as not preventing the taking in the Isle of Man and in the Channel Islands, in time of war or other grave and exceptional circumstances, of measures in the interests of national security in the case of a refugee on the ground of his nationality. The provisions of Article 8 shall not prevent the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from exercising any rights over property or interests which they may acquire or have acquired as an Allied or Associated Power under a Treaty of Peace or other agreement or arrangement for the restoration of peace which has been or may be completed as a result of the Second World War. Furthermore, the provisions of Article 8 shall not affect the treatment to be accorded to any property or interests which at the date of the entry into force of this Convention for the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands are under the control of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland by reason of a state of war which exists or existed between them and any other State.

(ii) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland accept paragraph 2 of Article 17 in its application to the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands with the substitution of "four years" for "three years" in sub-paragraph (a) and with the omission of sub-paragraph (c).

(iii) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland can only undertake that the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 1 of Article 24 and of paragraph 2 of that Article will be applied in the Channel Islands so far as the law allows, and that the provisions of that sub-paragraph, in respect of such matters referred to therein as fall within the scope of the Isle of Man Health Service, and of paragraph 2 of that Article will be applied in the Isle of Man so far as the law allows.

(iv) The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland cannot undertake that effect will be given in the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands to paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 25 and can only undertake that the provisions of paragraph 3 will be applied in the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands so far as the law allows.

(*)The Convention is ratified:—

(a) Subject to the reservation that the Republic of Austria regards the provisions of Article 17, paragraphs 1 and 2 (excepting, however, the phrase "who was already exempt from them at the date of entry into force of this Convention for the Contracting State concerned, or . . ." in the latter paragraph) not as a binding obligation, but merely as a recommendation.

(b) Subject to the reservation that the provisions of Article 22, paragraph 1 shall not be applicable to the establishment and maintenance of private elementary schools, that the "public relief and assistance" referred to in Article 23 shall be interpreted solely in the sense of allocations from public welfare funds (Armenversorgung), and that the "documents or certifications" referred to in Article 25, paragraphs 2 and 3 shall be construed to mean the identity certificates provided for in the Convention of 30th June, 1928, relating to refugees.

(c) On the understanding that, for the purposes of its obligations under the present Convention, the Republic of Austria considers itself bound by alternative (b) of Article I.B (1).

The instrument of ratification was accompanied by a notification providing that the above-mentioned reservations and declaration replace the reservations and declaration made by Austria at the time of signature of the Convention on 28th July, 1951.

(*)Translation

In depositing the instrument of ratification of His Majesty the King of the Belgians to the International Convention, and annexes relating to the status of refugees signed at Geneva on 28th July, 1951, I hereby declare :

"that the words 'events occurring before 1st January, 1951,' in Article 1, Section A, of that Convention should, from the point of view of the obligations assumed by the Belgian Government in virtue of the Convention, be understood to mean 'events occurring in Europe or elsewhere before 1st January, 1951.' Furthermore,

- (1) In all cases where the Convention grants to refugees the most favourable treatment accorded to nationals of a foreign country, this provision shall not be interpreted by the Belgian Government as necessarily involving the régime accorded to nationals of countries with which Belgium has concluded regional, customs, economic or political agreements.
- (2) Article 15 of the Convention shall not be applicable in Belgium ; refugees lawfully staying in Belgian territory will enjoy the same treatment, as regards the rights of association, as that accorded to 'aliens in general.'

(*)Translation

"In depositing the instrument of ratification by His Majesty the King of Denmark of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees signed at Geneva on 28th July, 1951, I have the honour, on behalf of my Government, to state that, in conformity with Article 42, paragraph 1, of the said Convention, Denmark's ratification is made subject to the following reservations :—

Denmark is not bound by Articles 14 and 17 or by Article 24, paragraph 3;

The provisions of Article 24, paragraph 1, under which refugees are in certain cases placed on the same footing as nationals, shall not oblige Denmark to grant refugees in every case exactly the same remuneration as that provided by law for nationals, but only to grant them what is required for their support ;

Paragraph 2 of the same Article shall be binding upon Denmark only if the beneficiary is a national of a State which grants Danish nationals the same treatment as its own nationals from the point of view of the benefits provided for in its relevant legislation.

At the same time, on behalf of my Government and in conformity with Article 40, paragraph 1; I have the honour to declare that the provisions of the Convention, subject to the above-mentioned reservations, will also apply to Greenland."

Reservations

ARTICLE 17

"The obligation stipulated in Article 17 (1) to accord to refugees lawfully staying in the country the most favourable treatment accorded to nationals of a foreign country in the same circumstances as regards the right to engage in wage-earning employment, shall not be construed as extending to refugees the benefits of agreements which may in the future be concluded between Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland and Sweden, or between Norway and any one of these countries, for the purpose of establishing special conditions for the transfer of labour between these countries."

ARTICLE 24

"The obligation stipulated in Article 24 (1) (b) to accord to refugees lawfully staying in the country the same treatment as is accorded to nationals in respect of social security, shall not apply as regards benefits payable under the Act of 16th July, 1936, relating to the disabled and the blind or the Act relating to family allowances of 24th October, 1946, nor as regards the benefits payable under the Act of 24th June, 1931, relating to employment injury insurance for seamen.

A reservation is also made with respect to the provisions contained in Article 24 (3) in so far as payment of benefits under the three above-mentioned Acts is concerned."

On 21st January, 1954, the Secretary-General of the United Nations was notified that—

"The Government of Norway withdraws, with immediate effect, the reservation made by it to Article 24 of the Convention, as the Acts mentioned in said reservation have been amended to accord to refugees lawfully staying in the country the same treatment as is accorded to Norwegian nationals."

⁽¹⁰⁾The expression "events occurring before 1st January, 1951," in Article 1, Section A, will be understood to mean, so far as Sweden is concerned, events occurring in Europe or elsewhere before 1st January, 1951.

Reservations

First, a general reservation to the effect that the application of those provisions of the Convention which grant to refugees the most favourable treatment accorded to nationals of a foreign country shall not be affected by the fact that special rights and privileges are now or may in future be accorded by Sweden to the nationals of Denmark, Finland, Iceland and Norway or to the nationals of any one of those countries; and, secondly, the following reservations: reservation to Article 7, paragraph 2, to the effect that Sweden is not prepared, as a general measure, to grant refugees who fulfil the condition of three years' residence in Sweden an exemption from any legislative reciprocity which Swedish law may have stipulated as a condition governing an alien's eligibility for some right or privilege; a reservation to Article 8 to the effect that that Article shall not be binding on Sweden; a reservation to Article 12, paragraph 1, to the effect that the Convention shall not modify the rule of Swedish private international law, as now in force, under which the personal status of a refugee is governed by the law of his country of nationality; a reservation to Article 14 to the effect that the protection afforded by that Article shall apply only to industrial property; a reservation to Article 17, paragraph 2, to the effect that Sweden does not consider itself bound to grant a refugee who fulfils any one of the conditions set out in sub-paragraphs (a)–(c) an automatic exemption from the obligation to obtain a work permit; a reservation to Article 24, paragraph 1 (b), to the effect that Sweden shall not be bound under the principle of national treatment for refugees to accord to refugees the same treatment as is accorded to nationals in respect of the compulsory conversion into a lump-sum capital payment of the daily sickness allowance or the annuity to which a non-resident alien in Sweden is entitled by virtue of an employment injury or an occupational disease; nor in respect of an allowance for funeral expenses of a non-resident alien in Sweden; nor in respect of the possibility of obtaining insurance benefits under the provisions in force in Sweden making special accident insurance available to fishermen, or of the possibility of becoming a member of a State approved unemployment fund; and likewise to the effect that Sweden makes eligibility for the benefits of general sickness insurance conditional upon inclusion in the annual census lists; a reservation to Article 24, paragraphs 2 and 3, to the effect that the provisions of those paragraphs shall not be binding on Sweden; and a reservation to Article 25, to the effect that Sweden does not consider itself bound to cause a certificate to be delivered by a Swedish authority, in the place of the authorities of a foreign country, if the documentary records necessary for the delivery of such a certificate do not exist in Sweden.
