WHEAT TRADE CONVENTION, 1986

PART I GENERAL

ARTICLE 1

Objectives

The objectives of this Convention are:

- (a) To further international co-operation in all aspects of trade in wheat, and other grains, especially in so far as these affect the wheat situation;

ARTICLE 3

Information, reports and studies

(1) To facilitate the achievement of the objectives in Article 1, make possible a fuller exchange of views at Council sessions, and provide information on a continuing basis to serve the general interest of members, arrangements shall be made for regular reports and exchange of information, and also special studies, as appropriate, covering grain, focusing primarily upon the following;

- (a) supply, demand and market conditions;
- (b) developments in national policies and their effects on the international market;
- (c) developments concerning the improvement and expansion of trade, utilization, storage and transportation, especially in developing countries.

(2) To improve the collection and presentation of information for those reports and studies referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, to make it possible for more members to participate directly in the work of the Council, and to supplement the guidance already given by the Council in the course of its sessions, there shall be established a Sub-Committee on Market Conditions with the functions specified in Article 16.

ARTICLE 4

Consultations on market developments

(1) If the Sub-Committee on Market Conditions, in the course of its continuous review of the market under Article 16, is of the opinion that developments in the international grain market seriously threaten to affect the interests of members, or if such developments are called to the Sub-Committee's attention by the Executive Director on his own initiative or at the request of any member of the Council, it shall immediately report the facts concerned to the Executive Committee. The Sub-Committee, in so informing the Executive Committee, shall give particular regard to those circumstances which threaten to affect the interests of members.

(2) The Executive Committee shall meet within ten working days to review such developments and, if it deems it appropriate, request the Chairman of the Council to convene a session of the Council to consider the situation.

ARTICLE 5

Commercial purchases and special transactions

(1) A commercial purchase for the purposes of this Convention is a purchase as defined in Article 2 which conforms to the usual commercial practices in international trade and which does not include those transactions referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article.

(2) A special transaction for the purposes of this Convention is one which includes features introduced by the Government of a member concerned which do not conform to usual commercial practices. Special transactions include the following:

- (a) Sales on credit in which, as a result of government intervention, the interest rate, period of payment, or other related terms do not conform to the commercial rates, periods or terms prevailing in the world market;

- (b) Sales in which the funds for the purchase of grain are obtained under a loan from the Government of the exporting member tied to the purchase of grain;
 - (c) Sales for currency of the importing member which is not transferable or convertible into currency or goods for use in the exporting member;
 - (d) Sales under trade agreements with special payments arrangements which include clearing accounts for settling credit balances bilaterally through the exchange of goods, except where the exporting member and the importing member concerned agree that the sale shall be regarded as commercial;
 - (e) Barter transactions:
 - (i) which result from the intervention of Governments where grain is exchanged at other than prevailing world prices, or
 - (ii) which involve sponsorship under a government purchase programme, except where the purchase of grain results from a barter transaction in which the country of final destination was not named in the original barter contract;
 - (f) A gift of grain or a purchase of grain out of a monetary grant by the exporting member made for that specific purpose;
 - (g) Any other categories of transactions, as the Council may prescribe, that include features introduced by the Government of a member concerned which do not conform to usual commercial practices.
- (3) Any question raised by the Executive Director or by any member as to whether a transaction is a commercial purchase as defined in paragraph (1) of this Article or a special transaction as defined in paragraph (2) of this Article shall be decided by the Council.

ARTICLE 6

Guidelines relating to concessional transactions

- (1) Members undertake to conduct any concessional transactions in grains in such a way as to avoid harmful interference with normal patterns of production and international commercial trade.
- (2) To this end both supplying and recipient members shall undertake appropriate measures to ensure that concessional transactions are additional to commercial sales which could reasonably be anticipated in the absence of such transactions, and would increase consumption or stocks in the recipient country. Such measures shall, for countries which are members of FAO, be consistent with the FAO Principles of Surplus Disposal and Guiding Lines and the consultative obligations of FAO members, and may include the requirement that a specified level of commercial imports of grains agreed with the recipient country be maintained on a global basis by that country. In establishing or adjusting this level, full regard shall be had to the commercial import levels in a representative period, to recent trends in utilization and imports, and to the economic circumstances of the recipient country, including, in particular, its balance-of-payments situation.
- (3) Members, when engaging in concessional export transactions, shall consult with exporting members whose commercial sales might be affected by such transactions to the maximum possible extent before such arrangements are concluded with recipient countries.
- (4) The Secretariat shall periodically report to the Council on developments in concessional transactions in grains.

ARTICLE 7

Reporting and recording

- (1) Members shall provide regular reports, and the Council shall maintain records for each crop year, showing separately commercial and special transactions, of all shipments of grain by members and all imports of grain from non-members. The Council shall also maintain, to the extent possible, records of all shipments between non-members.

(2) Members shall provide, as far as possible, such information as the Council may require concerning their grain supply and demand, and report promptly all changes in their national grain policies.

(3) For the purposes of this Article:

(a) members shall send to the Executive Director such information concerning the quantities of grain involved in commercial sales and purchases and special transactions as the Council within its competence may require, including:

(i) in relation to special transactions, such detail of the transactions as will enable them to be classified in accordance with Article 5;

(ii) such information as may be available as to the type, class, grade and quality of the grains concerned;

(b) any member exporting grain shall send to the Executive Director such information relating to their export prices as the Council may require;

(c) The Council shall obtain regular information on currently prevailing grain transportation costs, and members shall report such supplementary information as the Council may require.

(4) In the case of any grain which reaches the country of final destination after resale in, passage through, or transshipment from the ports of, a country other than in which it originated, members shall to the maximum extent possible make available such information as will enable the shipment to be entered in the records as a shipment between the country of origin and the country of final destination. In the case of a resale, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply if the grain originated in the country of origin during the same crop year.

(5) The Council shall make rules of procedure for the reports and records referred to in this Article. Those rules shall prescribe the frequency and the manner in which those reports shall be made and shall prescribe the duties of members with regard thereto. The Council shall also make provision for the amendment of any records or statements kept by it, including provision for the settlement of any dispute arising in connection therewith. If any member repeatedly and unreasonably fails to make reports as required by this Article, the Executive Committee shall arrange consultations with that member to remedy the situation.

ARTICLE 8

Disputes and complaints

(1) Any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Convention which is not settled by negotiation shall, at the request of any member which is a party to the dispute, be referred to the Council for decision.

(2) Any member which considers that its interests as a party to this Convention have been seriously prejudiced by actions of any one or more members affecting the operation of this Convention may bring the matter before the Council. In such a case, the Council shall immediately consult with the members concerned in order to resolve the matter. If the matter is not resolved through such consultations, the Council shall consider the matter further and may make recommendations to the members concerned.

ARTICLE 13

Seat, sessions and quorum

- (1) The seat of the Council shall be in London unless the Council decides otherwise.
- (2) The Council shall meet at least once during each half of each crop year and at such other times as the Chairman may decide, or as otherwise required by this Convention.

ARTICLE 15

Executive Committee

- (1) The Council shall establish an Executive Committee consisting of not more than six exporting members elected annually by the exporting members and not more than eight importing members elected annually by the importing members. The Council shall appoint the Chairman of the Executive Committee and may appoint a Vice-Chairman.
- (2) The Executive Committee shall be responsible to and work under the general direction of the Council. It shall have such powers and functions as are expressly assigned to it under this Convention and such other powers and functions as the Council may delegate to it under paragraph (4) of Article 10.
- (3) The exporting members on the Executive Committee shall have the same total number of votes as the importing members. The Council may invite any non-member State, and any intergovernmental organization, to attend any of its meetings as an observer.

ARTICLE 19

Co-operation with other intergovernmental organizations

- (2) At its first session after this Convention comes into force, the Council shall approve its budget for the crop year ending 30 June 1987, and assess the contribution to be paid by each member.

¹Treaty Series No. 14 (1969), Cmnd. 3882.

- (3) The Council shall, at a session during the second half of each crop year, approve its budget for the following crop year and assess the contribution to be paid by each member for that crop year.
- (4) The initial contribution of any member acceding to this Convention under paragraph (1) of Article 27 shall be assessed by the Council on the basis of the votes to be distributed to it under paragraph (2)(b) of Article 11 and the period remaining in the current crop year, but the assessment made upon other members for the current crop year shall not be altered.
- (5) Contributions shall be payable immediately upon assessment.
- (6) If, at the end of six months following the date on which its contribution is due in accordance with paragraph (5) of this article, a member has not paid its full contribution, the Executive Director shall request the member to make payment as quickly as possible. If, at the expiration of six months after the request of the Executive Director, the member has still not paid its contribution, its voting rights in the Council and in the Executive Committee shall be suspended until such time as it has made full payment of the contribution.
- (7) A member whose voting rights have been suspended under paragraph (6) of this article shall not be deprived of any of its other rights or relieved of any of its obligations under this Convention, unless the Council so decides by special vote. It shall remain liable to pay its contribution and to meet any other of its financial obligations under this Convention.

ARTICLE 22

Economic provisions

In order to assure supplies of wheat and other grains to importing members and markets for wheat and other grains to exporting members at equitable and stable prices, the Council shall at an appropriate time examine the possibility of the negotiation of a new international agreement or convention with economic provisions. When it is judged that such a negotiation could be successfully concluded, the Council shall request the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to convene a negotiating conference.

PART III FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 23

Depositary

- (1) The Secretary-General of the United Nations is hereby designated as the depositary of this Convention.
- (2) The depositary shall notify all signatory and acceding Governments of each signature, ratification, acceptance, approval, provisional application of, and accession to, this Convention, as well as each notification and notice received under Articles 29 and 32.

ARTICLE 24

Signature

This Convention shall be open for signature at United Nations Headquarters from 1 May 1986 until and including 30 June 1986 by the Governments listed in the Annex and any Government member of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development.

ARTICLE 25

Ratification, acceptance, approval

- (1) This Convention shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by each signatory Government in accordance with its respective constitutional procedures.
- (2) Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the depositary not later than 30 June 1986. The Council may, however, grant one or more extensions of time to any signatory Government which is unable to deposit its instrument by that date. The Council shall inform the depositary of all such extensions of time.

ARTICLE 26

Provisional application

Any signatory Government and any other Government eligible to sign this Convention, or whose application for accession is approved by the Council, may deposit with the depositary, a declaration of provisional application. Any Government depositing such a declaration shall provisionally apply this Convention and be provisionally regarded as a party thereto.

ARTICLE 27

Accession

- (1) Any Government listed in the Annex and any Government member of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development may accede to the present Convention until and including 30 June 1986, except that the Council may grant one or more extensions of time to any Government which has not deposited its instrument by that date.
- (2) This Convention shall be open for accession after 30 June 1986 by the Governments of all States upon such conditions as the Council considers appropriate. Accession shall be effected by the deposit of an instrument of accession with the depositary. Such instruments of accession shall state that the Government accepts all the conditions established by the Council.
- (3) Where, for the purposes of the operation of this Convention, reference is made to members listed in the Annex, any member the Government of which has acceded to this Convention on conditions prescribed by the Council in accordance with this Article shall be deemed to be listed in the Annex.

ARTICLE 28

Entry into force

(1) This Convention shall enter into force on 1 July 1986 if instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or declarations of provisional application have been deposited not later than 30 June 1986 on behalf of Governments holding, at least, 60 per cent of votes set out in the Annex.

(2) If this Convention does not enter into force in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article, the Governments which have deposited instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or declarations of provisional application may decide by mutual consent that it shall enter into force between themselves, or may take whatever action they consider the situation requires.

ARTICLE 29

Withdrawal

Any member may withdraw from this Convention at the end of any crop year by giving written notice of withdrawal to the depositary at least ninety days prior to the end of that crop year, but shall not thereby be released from any obligations under this Convention which have not been discharged by the end of that crop year. The member shall simultaneously inform the Council of the action it has taken.

ARTICLE 30

Exclusion

If the Council finds that any member is in breach of its obligations under this Convention and decides further that such breach significantly impairs the operation of this Convention, it may, by special vote, exclude such member from the Council. The Council shall immediately notify the depositary of any such decision. Ninety days after the date of the Council's decision, that member shall cease to be a member of the Council.

ARTICLE 31

Settlement of accounts

(1) The Council shall determine any settlement of accounts which it finds equitable with a member which has withdrawn from this Convention or which has been excluded from the Council, or has otherwise ceased to be a party to this Convention. The Council shall retain any amounts already paid by such member. Such member shall be bound to pay any amounts due from it to the Council.

(2) Upon termination of this Convention, any member referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall not be entitled to any share of the proceeds of the liquidation or the other assets of the Council; nor shall it be burdened with any part of the deficit, if any, of the Council.

ARTICLE 32

Amendment

(1) The Council may by special vote recommend to members an amendment of this Convention. The amendment shall become effective 100 days after the depositary has received notifications of acceptance from exporting members which hold two thirds of the votes of the exporting members and by importing members which hold two thirds of the votes of the importing members, or on such later date as the Council may have determined by special vote. The Council may fix a time within which each member shall notify the depositary of its acceptance of the amendment and, if the amendment has not become effective by such time, it shall be considered withdrawn. The Council shall provide the depositary with the information necessary to determine whether the notifications of acceptance received are sufficient to make the amendment effective.

(2) Any member on behalf of which notification of acceptance of an amendment has not been made by the date on which such amendment becomes effective shall as of that date cease to be a party to this Convention, unless such member has satisfied the Council that acceptance could not be secured in time owing to difficulties in completing its constitutional procedures and the Council decides to extend for such member the period fixed for acceptance. Such member shall not be bound by the amendment before it has notified its acceptance thereof.

ARTICLE 33

Duration, extension and termination

(1) This Convention shall remain in force until 30 June 1991, unless extended under paragraph (2) of this Article, or terminated earlier under paragraph (3) of this Article, or replaced before that date by a new agreement or convention negotiated under Article 22.

(2) The Council may, by special vote, extend this Convention beyond 30 June 1991 for successive periods not exceeding two years on each occasion. Any member which does not accept such extension of this Convention shall so inform the Council and shall cease to be a party to this Convention from the beginning of the period of extension.

(3) The Council may at any time decide, by special vote, to terminate this Convention with effect from such date and subject to such conditions as it may determine.

(4) Upon termination of this Convention, the Council shall continue in being for such time as may be required to carry out its liquidation and shall have such powers and exercise such functions as may be necessary for that purpose.

(5) The Council shall notify the depositary of any action taken under paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of this Article.

DECLARATIONS AND RESERVATIONS

(Unless otherwise indicated, the declarations and reservations were made upon provisional application, ratification, accession, acceptance or approval.)

ARGENTINA

Bearing in mind that since the European Economic Community is one of the signatories to the Food Aid Convention, 1986, and the Wheat Trade Convention, 1986, the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community is applicable, and that in Part Four, Annex IV of this Treaty, the "Falkland Islands and dependencies" and the "British Antarctic Territory" are listed as dependent territories of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Argentine Republic declares that the inclusion of the Malvinas, South Georgia and South Sandwich Islands under the incorrect way affect its rights over those islands and dependencies does not in any way affect its rights over those islands, which form part of its national territory. Occupation by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland has prompted the United Nations General Assembly to adopt resolutions 2065 (XX), 3160 (XXVIII), 31/49, 37/9, 38/12, 39/6, 40/21, 41/40 and 42/19, recognizing the existence of a sovereignty dispute relating to the Malvinas question and urging the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to engage in negotiations with a view to arriving as soon as possible at a definitive peaceful solution to the dispute through the good offices of the United Nations Secretary-General, who is to keep the General Assembly informed of progress.

The Argentine Republic likewise rejects the inclusion by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland of the so-called "British Antarctic Territory", while reaffirming its rights to the Argentine Antarctic sector, including sovereignty and the corresponding maritime jurisdiction. It also recalls the safeguards against claims of territorial sovereignty in Antarctica established by article IV of the Antarctic Treaty, signed at Washington on 1 December 1959, to which the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland are parties.

The Argentine Republic does not accept that article XV of the Food Aid Convention, 1986, and article 8 of the International Wheat Agreement, 1986, apply to disputes relating to territories under foreign occupation or colonial domination in respect of which there is a sovereignty dispute to resolve for which the United Nations has recommended specific action.

CUBA

Declarations made upon signature and confirmed upon ratification:

The signature of the Republic of Cuba to the International Wheat Agreement, 1986, shall not be interpreted as recognition or acceptance on the part of the Government of the Republic of Cuba of the racist Government of South Africa, which does not represent the South African people and which, because of its systematic practice of the discriminatory policy of apartheid, has been expelled from international agencies, condemned by the United Nations and rejected by all the peoples of the world.

The signature of the Republic of Cuba to the International Wheat Agreement, 1986, shall not be interpreted as recognition or acceptance on the part of the Government of the Republic of Cuba of the Republic of Korea, because Cuba considers that it does not genuinely represent the interests of the Korean people.

The Government of the Republic of Cuba considers that the provisions contained in articles 24, 26 and 27 of the Agreement are discriminatory because they exclude a number of States from the right to sign, provisionally apply and accede to the Agreement, which is contrary to the principle of universality.

ITALY

. . . The Government of Italy will apply the Wheat Trade Convention, 1986, provisionally within the limits authorized by the Italian legal order.

JAPAN

“ . . . The Government of Japan implements the Convention, during the period of provisional application, within the limitations of its internal legislations and budgets.”

REPUBLIC OF KOREA

“ . . . The Government of the Republic of Korea will provisionally apply, within the limitations of the domestic legislation and budgetary process of the Republic of Korea, the Wheat Trade Convention, 1986.”

UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS

Declarations made upon signature and confirmed upon acceptance:

(a) Should the European Economic Community become a party to this Convention, the participation to the Convention by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics shall not create for it any obligations with regard to that community.

(b) In the light of the well-known position on the Korean question, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics cannot accept as valid the designation " Republic of Korea " contained in the annex to the Convention.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

“ . . . The United States of America will provisionally apply within the limitations of the United States internal legislation and budgetary process the Wheat Trade Convention, 1986.”

OBJECTIONS

EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY

28 January 1987

(Made on behalf of the European Economic Community and of its member States with respect to the declaration made by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics):

Article 2 of the International Wheat Agreement, 1986 provides that any reference to a Government or Governments shall be construed as including a reference to the European Economic Community.

Further to this provision, the European Economic Community signed the International Wheat Agreement on 26 June 1986 and informed the Secretary-General of the United Nations that same day that it would apply the Agreement provisionally in accordance with the rules set forth in article 26 of the Agreement.

Accordingly, the Community and its member States consider unacceptable the declaration which the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics made concerning the European Economic Community when it signed and accepted the Agreement, which declaration was notified to the Community on 20 August 1986. This declaration can in no circumstances be invoked against them and they consider it null and void.

Notes:

¹ Extension until 30 September 1987 of the time limit for the deposit of the instrument of accession by Mauritius. Decision taken on 15 September 1987 pursuant to a consultation by correspondence.

² In a communication dated 3 October 1990, the Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany notified the Secretary-General of the following:

“ . . . Through the accession of the German Democratic Republic to the Federal Republic of Germany with effect from 3 October 1990, the two German States have united to form one sovereign State, which as a single Member of the United Nations remains bound by the provisions of the Charter in accordance with the solemn declaration of 12 June 1973. As from the date of unification, the Federal Republic of Germany will act in the United Nations under the designation ‘Germany’.”

³ In a letter accompanying its instrument, the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany declared that the said Convention shall also apply to Berlin (West) with effect from the date on which it enters into force for the Federal Republic of Germany. See also note 2 above.

⁴ For the Kingdom in Europe.

⁵ For the United Kingdom, the British Virgin Islands, Gibraltar and Saint Helena.

⁶ The formality was effected by the Yemen Arab Republic.

“ . . . The People’s Democratic Republic of Yemen and the Yemen Arab Republic will merge in a single sovereign State called the ‘ Republic of Yemen ’ [short form: Yemen] with Sana’a as its capital, as soon as it is proclaimed on Tuesday, 22 May 1990. The Republic of Yemen will have single membership in the United Nations and be bound by the provisions of the Charter. All treaties and agreements concluded between either the Yemen Arab Republic or the People’s Democratic Republic of Yemen and other States and international organizations in accordance with international law which are in force on 22 May 1990 will remain in effect, and international relations existing on 22 May 1990 between the People’s Democratic Republic of Yemen and the Yemen Arab Republic and other States will continue.”

FOOD AID CONVENTION, 1986

PART I OBJECTIVE AND DEFINITIONS

ARTICLE I

Objective

The objective of this Convention is to secure, through a joint effort by the international community, the achievement of the World Food Conference target of at least 10 million tonnes of food aid annually to developing countries in the form of grain suitable for human consumption, and as determined by the provisions of this Convention.

ARTICLE II

Definitions

- (1) For the purposes of this Convention:
- (a) "Committee" means the Food Aid Committee referred to in Article IX;
 - (b) "member" means a party to this Convention;
 - (c) "Executive Director", means the Executive Director of the International Wheat Council;
 - (d) "Secretariat" means the secretariat of the International Wheat Council;
 - (e) "grain" or "grains" means wheat, barley, maize, millet, oats, rye, sorghum and rice, and any other type of grain suitable for human consumption that the Committee may decide, or products derived therefrom, including products of secondary processing, as defined in the Rules of Procedure, subject to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article III;
 - (f) "f.o.b." means free on board;
 - (g) "c.i.f." means cost, insurance and freight;
 - (h) "tonne" means 1,000 kilogrammes;
 - (i) "year" means the period from 1 July to 30 June, unless otherwise stated.
- (2) Any reference in this Convention to a "Government" or "Governments" shall be construed as including a reference to the European Economic Community (hereinafter referred to as the EEC). Accordingly, any reference in this Convention to "signature" or to the "deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval" or "an instrument of accession" or to a "declaration of provisional application" by a Government shall, in the case of the EEC, be construed as including signature or declaration of provisional application on behalf of the EEC by its competent authority, and the deposit of the instrument required by the institutional procedures of the EEC to be deposited for the conclusion of an international agreement.

PART II MAIN PROVISIONS

ARTICLE III

Contributions of members

(1) The members of this Convention agree to contribute to developing countries grains as food aid, as defined in Article II, paragraph (1)(e), suitable for human consumption and of an acceptable type and quality, or the cash equivalent thereof, in the minimum annual amounts specified in paragraph (3) below.

(2) To the maximum extent possible, contributions shall be made by members on a forward planning basis, so that recipient countries may be able to take account, in their development programmes, of the likely flow of food aid they will receive during each year of this Convention. Furthermore, members should, to the extent possible, indicate the amount of their contributions to be made in the form of gifts, and the grant element of any aid which is not in the form of gifts.

(3) The minimum annual contribution, in wheat equivalent, of each member towards the achievement of the objective of Article I is as follows:

Member	Tonnes
Argentina	35,000
Australia	400,000
Austria	20,000
Canada	600,000
European Economic Community and its member States	1,670,000
Finland	25,000
Japan	300,000
Norway	30,000
Sweden	40,000
Switzerland	27,000
United States of America	4,470,000

(4) For the purposes of the operation of this Convention, any member which has acceded to this Convention pursuant to paragraph (2) of Article XX shall be deemed to be listed in paragraph (3) of this Article together with its minimum contribution as determined under the provisions of Article XX.

(5) In the case of the inability of a member to fulfil its obligations under this Convention in any one year, the obligations of that member shall be increased in the following year by the residual amount remaining from the preceding year.

(6) Contributions in the form of grains shall be placed in a f.o.b. forward position by members. However, donors are encouraged, as appropriate, to bear the costs of transporting their grain contributions under this Convention beyond the f.o.b. stage, especially in emergency situations or in the case of shipments to low-income, food deficit countries. Due reference to the payment of such contributions shall be made in any reviews of the performance of members under this Convention.

(7) Grain purchases under sub-paragraph (a) of Article IV shall be made from members of the Food Aid Convention, 1986, and the Wheat Trade Convention, in force, with preference accorded to developing members of both Conventions, with a view to facilitating exports of, or processing by, developing members of both Conventions. In making purchases it shall be the general aim that the major part of such purchases shall come from developing countries, with priority being given to developing members of the Food Aid Convention. These provisions shall not however exclude the purchase of grain from a developing country, not a member of this Convention or the Wheat Trade Convention. In all purchases under this paragraph, special regard shall be given to the quality, the c.i.f. price advantages and the possibilities of speedy delivery to the recipient country and the specific requirements of the recipient countries themselves. Cash contributions shall not normally be used in any year to purchase grain from a country which is the same type of grain as that country has received as bilateral or multilateral food aid during the same year, or during previous years, if the grain so provided is still being used.

ARTICLE IV

Terms of food aid contributions

Food aid under this Convention may be supplied on any of the following terms:

- (a) gifts of grain or gifts of cash to be used to purchase grain for the recipient country;
- (b) sales for the currency of the recipient country which is not transferable and is not convertible into currency or goods and services for use by the donor members⁽¹⁾;
- (c) sales on credit, with payment to be made in reasonable annual amounts over periods of 20 years or more and with interest at rates which are below commercial rates prevailing in world markets⁽²⁾;

on the understanding that such aid shall be supplied to the maximum extent possible by way of gifts, especially in the case of least developed countries, low per capita income countries and other developing countries in serious economic difficulties.

ARTICLE V

Channelling of contributions

- (1) Members may, in respect of their contributions under this Convention, specify a recipient country or countries.
- (2) Members may make their contributions bilaterally or through intergovernmental organizations and/or non-governmental organizations.
- (3) Members shall give full consideration to the advantages of directing a greater proportion of food aid through multilateral channels, in particular the World Food Programme.

ARTICLE VI

Wheat equivalents

- (1) The Committee shall establish Rules of Procedure for the purposes of evaluating a member's contribution shipped in grain other than wheat, or in grain products, taking into account, where appropriate, the grain content of products and the commercial value of the grain or product relative to wheat.
- (2) For the purposes of evaluating a member's contribution, cash provided for the purchase of grain shall be evaluated at prevailing international market prices for wheat. For the purposes of this paragraph, the Committee shall annually determine the prevailing international market price for the following year on the basis of the average monthly price of wheat for the preceding calendar year. The Committee shall establish a Rule of Procedure for the determination of the average monthly price of wheat.
- (3) In determining the prevailing international market price under paragraph (2) of this Article, the Committee shall pay due consideration to any significant increase or decrease in the annual average price. A significant increase or decrease shall be considered to have taken place when the annual average price referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article rises more than 20 per cent above, or falls more than 20 per cent below, that of the previous calendar year, respectively. In that regard, the prevailing international market price actually used to evaluate a member's contribution shall not be more than 20 per cent above nor more than 20 per cent below that of the previous year.

⁽¹⁾ Under exceptional circumstances an exemption of not more than 10 per cent may be granted. This limitation may be waived for transactions which are to be used for the expansion of economic development activity in the recipient country, provided that the currency of the recipient country is not transferable or convertible in less than 10 years.

⁽²⁾ The credit sales agreement may provide for payment of up to 15 per cent of principal upon delivery of the grain.

ARTICLE VII

Impact on trade and agricultural production and conduct of aid transactions

- (1) All aid transactions under this Convention shall be carried out in a way consistent with the concerns expressed in the current FAO principles of Surplus Disposal and Guiding Lines. Members undertake to conduct all aid transactions under this Convention in such a way as to avoid harmful interference with normal patterns of production and international commercial trade.
- (2) Members shall, as appropriate, act in accordance with the Guidelines and Criteria for Food Aid, approved by the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes of the World Food Programme.

ARTICLE VIII

Special provision for emergency needs

If in any year there is a substantial food grain production shortfall in low income developing countries in a particular region or regions, the Chairman of the Committee, after considering information received from the Executive Director, may call a session of the Committee to consider the seriousness of the production shortfall. The Committee may recommend that members should respond to the situation by increasing the amount of food aid available.

ARTICLE IX

Food Aid Committee

There shall be established a Food Aid Committee whose membership shall consist of all parties to this Convention. The Committee shall appoint a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman.

ARTICLE X

Powers and functions of the Committee

 - (ii) possibilities of using grain surpluses in developing countries for transactions under paragraph (7) of Article III, and
 - (iii) possible effects of food aid on grain production and consumption in recipient countries.
- (b) The Committee may also receive information from recipient countries and consult with them.
- (3) The Committee shall issue reports as necessary.

(4) The Committee shall establish such rules of procedure as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this Convention.

(5) In addition to the powers and functions specified in this Article, the Committee shall have such other powers and perform such other functions as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this Convention.

ARTICLE XI

Seat, sessions and quorum

(1) The seat of the Committee shall be in London.

(2) The Committee shall meet at least twice a year in conjunction with the statutory sessions of the International Wheat Council. The Committee shall meet also at such other times as the Chairman shall decide; or at the request of three members; or as otherwise required by this Convention.

(3) The presence of delegates representing two thirds of the membership of the Committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at any session of the Committee.

ARTICLE XII

Decisions

The decisions of the Committee shall be reached by consensus.

ARTICLE XIII

ARTICLE XVIII

This Convention shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by each signatory Government in accordance with its constitutional procedures. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the depositary not later than 30 June 1986, except that the Committee may grant one or more extensions of time to any signatory Government that has not deposited its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval by that date.

ARTICLE XIX

Any signatory Government may deposit with the depositary a declaration of provisional application of this Convention. Any such Government shall provisionally apply this Convention and be provisionally regarded as a party thereto.

ARTICLE XX

DECLARATIONS AND RESERVATIONS

(Unless otherwise indicated, the declarations and reservations were made upon provisional application, ratification, accession, acceptance or approval.)

ARGENTINA

Bearing in mind that since the European Economic Community is one of the signatories to the Food Aid Convention, 1986, and the Wheat Trade Convention, 1986, the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community is applicable, and that in Part Four, Annex IV of this Treaty, the "Falkland Islands and dependencies" and the "British Antarctic Territory", are listed as dependent territories of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Argentine Republic declares that the inclusion of the Malvinas South Georgia and South Sandwich Islands under the incorrect way affect its rights over those islands and dependencies does not in any way affect its rights over those islands, which form part of its national territory. Occupation by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland has prompted the United Nations General Assembly to adopt resolutions 2065 (XX), 3160 (XXVIII), 31/49, 37/9, 38/12, 39/6, 40/21, 41/40 and 42/19, recognizing the existence of a sovereignty dispute relating to the Malvinas question and urging the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to engage in negotiations with a view to arriving as soon as possible at a definitive peaceful solution to the dispute through the good offices of the United Nations Secretary-General, who is to keep the General Assembly informed of progress.

The Argentine Republic likewise rejects the inclusion by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland of the so-called "British Antarctic Territory", while reaffirming its rights to the Argentine Antarctic sector, including sovereignty and the corresponding maritime jurisdiction. It also recalls the safeguards against claims of territorial sovereignty in Antarctica established by article IV of the Antarctic Treaty, signed at Washington on 1 December 1959, to which the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland are parties.

The Argentine Republic does not accept that article XV of the Food Aid Convention, 1986, and article 8 of the International Wheat Agreement, 1986, apply to disputes relating to territories under foreign occupation or colonial domination in respect of which there is a sovereignty dispute to resolve for which the United Nations has recommended specific action.
