NOTE:

The new Annex D was circulated to Contracting States by the Secretary-General of the United Nations on 27 November 1991. On 27 May 1992, in accordance with the provisions of article 10, paragraph 2, sub-paragraph (c) of the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer, concluded at Vienna on 22 March 1985⁵, Annex D became effective in its entirety for all Parties to the Montreal Protocol, with the exception of Singapore, for which the Annex became effective only with respect to the products described in the notification below.

The Secretary-General of the United Nations received on 27 May 1992 from the Government of Singapore the following notification:

(original: English)

“Singapore is still in the process of evaluating the feasibility of imposing controls on all the products listed in Annex D. In the interim, Singapore can only approve the intention to ban import of the following:

- (a) All products classified under item 2 of Annex D except domestic refrigerators and freezers; and
- (b) All products classified under item 3 of Annex D.”

¹ Treaty Series No. 19 (1990), Cm 977.

² This Annex was adopted by the Third Meeting of the Parties in Nairobi 19–21 June 1991 as required by paragraph 3 of Article 4 of the Protocol.

³ Though not when transported in consignments of personal or household effects or in similar non-commercial situations normally exempted from customs attention.

⁴ When containing controlled substances in Annex A as a refrigerant and/or in insulating material of the product.

⁵ Treaty Series No. 1 (1990), Cm 910.
