NOTE.

Each entry has reference to a Treaty engagement between the United Kingdom and a foreign State.

The arrangement is alphabetical. The first column includes both countries and subjects, and the words in italics in the second column refer to the corresponding subjects and countries. When the word in the first column is the name of a foreign State, the Treaty engagement is with that State, the word in italics referring to the subject. When the word in the first column refers to the subject, the Treaty engagement is with the State whose name follows in italics.

Thus—

- (1.) Belgium. Extradition. TREATY
- (2.) Arbitration. Austria-Hungary. CONVENTION ...

refer (1) to a Treaty with Belgium respecting extradition; (2) to a Convention with Austria-Hungary on the subject of arbitration.

Particulars follow in each case.
