EXCHANGES OF NOTES BETWEEN HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT REGARDING THE TAXATION, &C., OF PENSIONS OF RETIRED FOREIGN OFFICIALS.

Cairo, Alexandria and London, August 12, 31 and September 9, 1936.

No. 1.

Sir M. Lampson to Nahas Pasha.

The Residency,

Sir,

Ramleh, August 12, 1936.

IN view of apprehensions which have been expressed, I should be grateful if your Excellency would give me an assurance that the Egyptian Government does not intend now or in the future to subject the pensions of already retired Government officials of foreign nationality residing out of Egypt, to Egyptian taxation or to any additional charges by way of stamp duty or otherwise over or above the amounts now payable in respect of such pensions.

I avail, &c.

MILES W. LAMPSON,

High Commissioner.

No. 2.

Nahas Pasha to Sir M. Lampson.

Antoniadis Palace,

Sir,

Alexandria, August 12, 1936.

IN reply to your Excellency's letter of to-day's date, I have the honour to confirm that it is not the intention of the Egyptian Government now or in the future to subject the pensions of already retired Government officials of foreign nationality residing out of Egypt to Egyptian taxation or to any additional charges by way of stamp duty or otherwise over or above the amounts now payable in respect of such pensions.

I avail, &c.

MOUSTAPHA EL-NAHAS,

President of the Council of Ministers.

No. 3.

Nahas Pasha to Mr. Eden.

Egyptian Legation,

London, August 31, 1936.

Sir,

I HAVE the honour to confirm to your Excellency that the assurance contained in my letter of the 12th August to his Excellency Sir Miles Lampson extends to officials who, though they have not already retired, have already qualified for pensions by completing their years of service or are in process of qualifying for their pensions, and who, after retiring, live out of Egypt.

I avail, &c.

MOUSTAPHA EL-NAHAS,

President of the Council of Ministers.

No. 4.

Mr. Eden to Nahas Pasha.

Foreign Office,

London, September 9, 1936.

Your Excellency,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the note of the 31st August by which your Excellency was so good as to confirm that the assurances contained in your letter of the 12th August to Sir Miles Lampson extends to officials who, though they have not already retired, have already qualified for pensions by completing their years of service or are in process of qualifying for their pensions, and who, after retiring, live out of Egypt.

I have, &c.

ANTHONY EDEN.
