NORTH-EAST ATLANTIC FISHERIES CONVENTION

London, 24 January 1959

Procès-verbal concerning Modifications to Article 7(1)

Whereas paragraph (2) of Article 7 of the North-East Atlantic Fisheries Convention, signed at London on 24 January 1959⁽¹⁾, provides that:

“Measures for regulating the amount of total catch, or the amount of fishing effort in any period, or any other kinds of measures for the purpose of the conservation of the fish stocks in the Convention area, may be added to the measures listed in paragraph (1) of this Article on a proposal adopted by not less than a two-thirds majority of the Delegations present and voting and subsequently accepted by all Contracting States in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.”

And whereas at the Eighth Meeting of the North-East Atlantic Fisheries Commission, held at London from 6 to 11 May 1970, the Delegations present and voting unanimously adopted the following proposal:

[English text]

“In accordance with Article 7(a) of the Convention the Commission hereby proposes that the following additions be made to the list of measures in Article 7(1):

- (g) any measures for the regulation of the amount of total catch and its allocation to Contracting States in any period; and
- (h) any measures for the regulation of the amount of fishing effort and its allocation to Contracting States in any period.”

[French text]

“Conformément à l'article 7(2) de la Convention, la Commission propose que les mesures suivantes soient ajoutées à la liste de l'article 7(1):

- (g) toute mesure tendant à réglementer la quantité totale des captures et sa répartition entre les Etats contractants au cours de n'importe quelle période;
- (h) toute mesure tendant à réglementer le volume de l'effort de pêche et sa répartition entre les Etats contractants, pendant n'importe quelle période.”

Now therefore I, Roscoe George Smedley, Head of Nationality and Treaty Department, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, hereby certify that all Contracting States having accepted the proposal of the Commission, the said modifications took effect on 4 June 1974.

In witness whereof I have signed this Procès-verbal at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, London, this 11th day of July, 1977.

R. G. SMEDLEY.
