NOTE.

Each entry has reference to a Treaty engagement between Great Britain and a foreign State.

The arrangement is alphabetical. The first column (capitals) includes both countries and subjects, and the second column (italics) refers to the corresponding subjects and countries. When the word in italics is the name of a country, the Treaty engagement is with that country, the word in capitals referring to the subject. When the word in italics refers to the subject, the Treaty engagement is with the country whose name is printed in capitals.

Thus—

(1.) AFGHANISTAN. Russia. EXCHANGE OF NOTES ...

(2.) BELGIUM. Extradition. CONVENTION ... ..

refer (1) to an Exchange of Notes with Russia on the subject of Afghanistan ; (2) to a Convention with Belgium respecting extradition.

Particulars follow in each case.
