* The Accession of Mexico is subject to the following reservations:—

The Mexican stations will accept radiotelegrams in the following cases only:—

(a.) When they emanate from passengers or members of the crew of vessels authorised to send such messages by the Convention of London, and are addressed to places in the Republic connected by telegraph or telephone with those stations;

(b.) From places in the Republic to passengers or members of the crew of the vessels mentioned above;

(c.) From such vessels to places abroad passing in transit over the Mexican Federal lines
