Note.—As regards Article 236 of the Treaty of Peace, Austria has declared herself bound towards all the Contracting Parties to this Convention. * The accession of Poland is subject to the following reservations:— (1.) In view of the possibility of private enterprise in the exploitation of radio-telegraphic stations of public use, the Polish Government reserve freedom of action with regard to those paragraphs and annexes of the Convention which deal with inland tariffs for radio-telegraphy. (2.) Until the Peace Treaty with Russia is ratified, the Polish radio-telegraphic stations will be liable to special regulations remaining in force during the time of war. In this respect the strict application of the Convention will accordingly be possible only after the re-establishment of a state of peace between Russia and Poland.
